

From: Connie Moise [<mailto:cmoise@avc.edu>]
Sent: Friday, April 30, 2004 10:40 AM
To: support@4c.net; Holsclaw, Mick; dave@cenic.org; webmaster@cenic.org
Cc: IT_Committee
Subject: Re: Acceptable Use Policy Question

I have never received a reply to this 4Cnet inquiry. Please direct me to someone who may be able to assist us. Thank you.

-Connie Moise

Director, Information Technology Services
Antelope Valley College

Connie Moise wrote:

> This question is regarding the 4Cnet Acceptable Use Policy.
>
> Antelope Valley College's Information Technology Committee (a > participatory governance committee) is discussing whether and how the > college website may be used to support fundraising activities for the > college Foundation. The Committee discussed the possibility of > providing a link from the Foundation's part of the AVC web site to an > outside vendor for the purpose of generating income for the Foundation > through product sales. The Committee discussed whether this might > violate the 4Cnet Acceptable Use Policy. The Committee also compared > the Foundation fundraising activities to the college bookstore's link > from www.avc.edu to their commercial site, www.marauderbookstore.com, > where products are sold in addition to textbooks. Questions also arose > about fundraising by student clubs.
>
>
> The Committee discussed the point that the Foundation is the > fundraising arm of the college and that fundraising is part of the > mission of the department of Institutional Advancement, Resource > Development and Research. As chairperson of the IT Committee, I was > asked to check with 4Cnet on the interpretation of the 4Cnet > Acceptable Use Policy regarding the question of Foundation > fundraising.
>
> Please let me know if you need clarification on any of these points in > order to provide a response to our question of whether and how the > college website may be used to support fundraising activities for the > college Foundation. Thank you.
>
> -Connie Moise
> Director, Information Technology Services
> Chair, Information Technology Committee

> Antelope Valley College