Presentations

CONFERENCE TALKS

Rich, S. & Wagers, M. 2021. Syntactic and semantic parallelism guides filler-gap processing in coordination. Talk at the 34th Annual CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing.

Philadelphia, PA. March 4-6.

Rich, S. & Wagers, M. 2020. Semantic similarity and temporal contiguity in subject-verb dependency processing. Talk at The 33rd Annual CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing. Amherst, MA. March 19-21.

Rich, S. & Harris, J. A. 2019. The limits of forward thinking: Structural prediction with correlative and quantificational both. Talk at Psycholinguistics in Iceland – Parsing and Prediction. Reykjavík, Iceland. June 19-20.

Rich, S. & Harris, J. A. 2018. Lexical and structural predictions during online processing: The case of partitive both. Talk at The Second Annual California Meeting on Psycholinguistics. Los Angeles, CA. December 1-2.

Rich, S. & Harris, J. A. 2017. Disconfirmed lexical predictions linger in highly constraining contexts. Talk at The First Annual California Meeting on Psycholinguistics. Los Angeles, CA. December 2-3.

Kingston, J., Rich, S., Shen, A., & Sered, S. 2015. Is perception personal? Talk at The 18th International Congress of Phonetic Sciences. Glasgow, UK. August 10-14.

Conference Posters and Short Talks

Balachandran, L., Rich, S., & Wagers, M. 2023. Domain-sensitivity of sentence memory and (lack of) temporal contiguity effects. Poster at the 29th Annual AMLaP Conference. San Sebastian, Spain. August 31 - September 2.

Rich, S., Balachandran, L., Duff, J., Kogan, M., Van Handel, N., Wax Cavallaro, M., & Wagers, M. 2022. "It's alive!" Animacy-based structural predictions update with context. Short Talk at the 35th Annual Conference on Human Sentence Processing. Santa Cruz, CA. March 24-26.

Van Handel, N., Balachandran, L., Rich, S., & Rysling, A. 2021. Singular vs. Plural Themselves: Evidence from the Ambiguity Advantage. Short Talk at the 34th Annual CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing. Philadelphia, PA. March 4-6.

Sloggett, S., Van Handel, N., Sasaki, K., Duff, J., Rich, S., Orth, W., Anand, P., Rysling, A. 2020. "Ambiguous" isn't "underspecified": Evidence from the Maze task. Poster at the 33rd CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing. Amherst, MA. March 19-21.

Rich, S. & Wagers, M. 2019. Disentangling encoding interference from retrieval interference. Poster at The Third Annual California Meeting on Psycholinguistics. Santa Cruz, CA. October 26-27.

Harris, J. A. & Rich, S. 2019. Evidence for lingering structural prediction in 'either-or' structures. Poster at the Psycholinguistics in Iceland – Parsing and Prediction. Reykjavík, Iceland. June 19-20.

Rich, S. & Harris, J. A. 2019. Thinking ahead has its limits: Structural prediction with correlative and quantificational both. Poster at The 32nd Annual CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing. Boulder, CO. March 29-31.

Rich, S. & Harris, J. A. 2018. Local constraint is inhibited by global constraint in concessive contexts. Poster at The 31st Annual CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing. Davis, CA. March 15-17.

Rich, S. & Harris, J. A. 2018. Disconfirmed lexical predictions linger in highly constraining contexts. Poster at The 31st Annual CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing. Davis, CA. March 15-17.

Harris, J. A., Rich, S. & Rigby, I. 2017. Predictability and misperception: An eye movement and ex-Gaussian analysis. Poster at The 30th Annual CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing. Boston, MA. March 30-April 1.

Harris, J. A. & Rich, S. 2017. Predicted analyses linger: The case for structural prediction with either-or structures. Poster at The 30th Annual CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing. Boston, MA. March 30-April 1.

Duff, J., Frazier, L., Clifton Jr, C., & Rich, S. 2017. Anticipating negation: Experimental evidence for a semantic account of Neg raising. Poster at The 30th Annual CUNY Conference on Human Sentence Processing. Boston, MA. March 30-April 1.

INVITED

Rich, S. & Wagers, M. 2021. Syntactic and semantic parallelism guides filler-gap processing in coordination. Talk at Linguistics at Santa Cruz (LASC). Santa Cruz, CA. March 6.

Harris, J. A. & Rich, S. 2017. Predicted analyses linger: The case for structural prediction with either-or structures. Talk at Language Processing Lab Meeting. USC, Department of Linguistics. Los Angeles, CA. November 13.

UNDERGRADUATE

Rich, S. 2016. Why not Both? Incremental Processing of Syntactic and Semantic Ambiguities. Poster at The 22nd Annual Undergraduate Research Conference. Amherst, MA. April 22.

RESEARCH POSITIONS

Grad. Research Assistant, IRAPS   Summer 2022
  Institutional analysis of equity gaps in student performance
  Office of Institutional Research, Assessment, and Policy Studies
  University of California, Santa Cruz

Sub-Project Lead, NSF Grant BCS-2019804   Summer 2021
  Animacy and resumption at the border of cognition and grammar
  University of California, Santa Cruz
  PI: Dr. Maziar Toosarvandani; Co-PIs: Drs. Ivy Sichel and Matt Wagers

Grad. Research Assistant, Amazon's Alexa Prize   Summer 2021
  Prosodic markup for UCSC team's social chatbot
  University of California, Santa Cruz

PI: Dr. Marilyn Walker

Grad. Research Assistant, Códice fieldwork software Summer 2019
Developing neo4j backend
University of California, Santa Cruz
PIs: Drs. Pranav Anand and Maziar Toosarvandani

Lab Manager, Language Processing Lab Fall 2016 - Summer 2018
University of California, Los Angeles
PI: Dr. Jesse Harris

Undergrad. Research Assistant, Sentence Processing Lab Spring 2014 - Spring 2016
University of Massachusetts, Amherst
PIs: Drs. Lyn Frazier and Charles Clifton, Jr.

Undergrad. Research Assistant, Phonetics Lab Fall 2013 - Spring 2016
University of Massachusetts, Amherst
PI: Dr. John Kingston

REU Participant, NSF Grant BCS-0813829 Fall 2014 - Spring 2015
Investigations in Optimality Theory:
Typology, Learning, and Modeling
University of Massachusetts, Amherst
PIs: Drs. Joe Pater and John McCarthy

Research Intern, Laboratory for Quantitative Medicine Summer 2011
Survival trends in childhood hematalogical
malignancies (Rich et al., 2012)
Massachusetts General Hospital
PI: Dr. James Michaelson

TEACHING: INSTRUCTOR OF RECORD

Variation in Language Processing	Summer 2023

TEACHING ASSISTANTSHIPS

Psycholinguistics II, instructor: Matt Wagers	Winter 2023
Syntax I, instructor: Jorge Hankamer	Spring 2022
Psycholinguistics II, instructor: Matt Wagers	Winter 2022
Phonetics I, instructor: Grant McGuire	Fall 2021
Semantics I, instructor: Adrian Brasoveanu	Summer 2021
Morphology, instructor: Jorge Hankamer	Spring 2021
Linguistic Models for Computer Scientists, instructor: Pranav Anand	Winter 2021
Semantics I, instructor: Tom Roberts	Fall 2019

Grants and Awards

The Jorge Hankamer Outstanding Instructor in Linguistics Award   Spring 2022
Recognition for performance in teaching

National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowship   2018-2023
Graduate funding for three years

UMass Commonwealth Honors College Research Grant   Spring 2016
Research funds to support undergraduate honors thesis

Eta Sigma Phi   2013
Classics Honors Society

John and Abigail Adams Scholarship   2012-2016
Merit-based scholarship towards university tuition
